Beach & Island Weddings With Coral Seekers

Simplicity, Beauty, Nature

If your idea of a perfect wedding is on a beautiful small island or a palm-fringed beach as the sun is setting...

Beach and Island weddings are the perfect answer for couples who wish to mark the commencement of their married life with a day that will never be forgotten.

...the feel of powder coral sand underfoot...

... the stunning and constantly changing canvas of a vast, never ending sky ...

...and to serenade you, the unforgettable sound of the gentle Andaman Sea lapping the shoreline...

You may wish to immerse yourself in this moment as a couple, or you may wish to share this truly magical day by inviting your friends and family to be with you. However you imagine your perfect day to be, Coral Seekers' aim is to ensure that the stunning and unforgettable impressions that you will treasure for always are realized with our expert support and guidance.

Relax... Let Us Plan Your Special Day

We seek to take your dreams for this day and turn them into reality by providing an end-to-end service covering every organizational detail leading up to, and on the day itself. We aim to remove all of the stress and effort normally associated with the coordination of a wedding ceremony.

With more than 10 years experience in conducting beach and island weddings in Phuket, Coral Seekers has an intimate knowledge of all the locations and practical considerations for planning such a special event.

As might be expected, there is a lot more to the organization of a beach wedding than first appears to be the case.....

...location, aspect, tides, permissions (to use certain beaches), coordination of resources, a celebrant, transportation, catering, set-up - not to mention contingency planning for nature's moods....the list of considerations is extensive, and it is the attention to detail that comes from years of experience that sets Coral Seekers apart in the smooth management of the arrangements leading up to and on the day itself.

Imagine... An Event Tailored Just For You

We have provided our services to couples from all over the world and so are most happy and at ease with understanding and delivering a wedding in accordance with different cultural customs and wishes.

We can provide complete wedding packages, where you entrust that with our experience, we will ensure all the details are taken care of. However, you can also choose a more customized experience where you provide as little or as much input to the planning as you like to place your individual mark on this unique day.

In 10+ years we have taken the dreams of hundreds of couples and turned them into reality.

Our aim is simple - to provide a one-stop service that removes all of the stress and effort involved in trying to draw together all the pieces that go into creating a magical and memorable day that will be treasured always.

Official & Unofficial Weddings > Notes

Many of our couples come to Phuket to create a special additional ceremony to the Civil Ceremony that they will hold back in their home country. Some of our couples have been married for years, but decide to renew their vows in a beautiful and romantic setting.

For those who seek to formalize their wedding legally in Thailand, a certain amount of preparatory work is required in order to make the marriage an official ceremony. Please contact us to seek further advice as we are often able to assist in the process.

Legalising the wedding ceremony so that the marriage is official means having the marriage registered in Thailand. This generally requires forms to be completed in Bangkok at your Embassy (dependent on the legal requirements of your country of origin), and certified by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

Coral Seekers can provide further information on the mandatory requirements and can refer agents who will assist with the administration, which includes translation, submission and stamping.

We will then arrange for your marriage to be legally registered in Phuket. In most cases we can arrange for the registrar to be present at your beach or villa ceremony.

Although the formalities may seem to be a little daunting, with a little forethought and planning the process is relatively straight forward.
